May 19th marked the birthday of Malcolm X (el Hajj Malik el Shabazz). Brother Malcolm continues to represent one of the best examples of personal redemption and revolutionary transformation of 20th century Black America. Unfortunately, many of us have failed to take heed to his warnings concerning the duplicity of both mainstream political parties (republicans and democrats) and their supposedly contentious political tendencies (liberalism versus conservatism). Malcolm correctly pointed out that both political parties and philosophies were opposed to genuine Black freedom and self-determination and were actually mechanisms to promote and defend white-supremacy and economic injustice (capitalism) while keeping Black folks under control and containment. He referred to them as the fox versus the wolf. One was slick and sly while the other was more direct and confrontational. However, both intend to eat you for dinner. So today, as we approach the 2020 presidential election, the foxes of the democratic party have already began the process of identifying, hunting and devouring the Black electorate in the quest to regain control of the white-house, and perhaps later, control of the U.S. senate. The latest ploy involves a host of democratic candidates paying lip-service in support of Reparations, criminal justice reform and so-called ‘civil-rights’. There was even a congressional hearing held on June 19th, 2019 (Juneteenth) concerning HR 40 which calls for a panel to be commissioned regarding the study of reparations. It’s not by coincidence, that approximately two weeks later, the democrats held their first series of debates among potential presidential candidates. So here we are again, allowing ourselves to be duped and manipulated into throwing our support and votes behind people who don’t really share or care about the collective best interest of Black/New Afrikan people. We need to remember and reflect on the lessons that Brother Malcolm taught us. If we really want to be free, we must conduct ourselves as people who truly desire freedom. Say no to both the wolves and the foxes. Time to leave the political plantation of the democratic party.

As we pursue the ideal goal of ‘Community-Control of the Police’, the National Mobilization Against Police Brutality & the Fraternal Order of Police (FOP) also propose the following interim reforms:

1. Mandatory cultural sensitivity training for all new and veteran police officers.
2. Intense psychological evaluations for all officers, especially those returning from military service.
3. Legislation creating a National Civilian-Police Review Board.
4. Universal drug-testing for any police officer who discharges his/her weapon while in the performance of duty.
5. Mandatory reporting for all stop, frisk, arrest and/or civilian confrontations.
6. Mandatory body-cameras for all police officers.
7. Mandatory dash-board cameras for all police vehicles, including transport vans.
8. We advocate & support local legislation which prohibits local police from acting as immigration enforcement officers.
9. We advocate & support legislation which guarantees full & public disclosure of any police officers prior employment history, including complaints and disciplinary actions resulting from all allegations and/or findings of police misconduct.

No one, not even police officers and/or members of the Fraternal Order of Police (FOP) should be exempt from accountability and prosecution regarding criminal misconduct.

Sincerely,

THE TIME IS NOW:

During the last fifty years, the Democrat and Republican parties have failed to address and remedy the systemic and structural inequalities that impact the lives of Black/New Afrikan people. Both the Democratic and Republican leadership avoid and/or marginalize serious national discussion regarding dismantling White supremacy, institutional racism and the plight of Blacks/New Afrikans, especially the urban poor and working class.

The New Afrikan Independence Party (NAIP) is committed to the pursuit of social justice, human rights and self/group determination for Black/New African people. We call for a revolutionary and radical reconstruction of the economic, political and social structures and institutions that impact our lives.

The NAIP will embrace the best ideals, ideas and practices of the Civil Rights, Black Power, Black Liberation, Pan-Africanist and other movements for independence and self/group determination.

The NAIP will also embrace the best ideals and practices of contemporary activists, organizers and movements for social change and radical reconstruction.
Reparations and the 2020 Presidential Campaign

In the last few months, several persons clamoring for the democratic party presidential nomination have stated their support for either reparations or at least support of HR 40, calling for the convening of a reparations commission. Since then, reparations has become a hot topic within the black and non-black community. The majority of Blacks stating their support for reparations, specifically because of the history and legacy of slavery within the United States: while some others, mostly whites, are emphatically opposed to any such measures.

Those in opposition claim that slavery happened a very long time ago and that there are no living slave-masters nor slaves living today since slavery was officially ended in 1865. Some oppositional forces even claim that reparations were already awarded through the passage of 1960’s civil rights legislation, affirmative action initiatives and the election of Barak Obama as president of the United States. Amid all this activity and chatter various groups, organizations and individuals have weighed in regarding what strategic direction the national Black/New Afrikan community should pursue as we approach November 2020.

While all those in favor of reparations agree that it should be constantly presented as an issue throughout the democratic primaries and beyond, there is definitely disagreement on how to make this a reality. Some members of the group American Descendants Of Slaves (ADOS) and others have proposed that Blacks basically withhold our votes unless there is a firm commitment (presumably from the Democratic party nominee) to grant reparations, if elected. Others forces have even suggested that Blacks/New Afrikans actually boycott the 2020 presidential elections altogether and cast no votes whatsoever.

We, of the New Afrikan Independence Party (NAIP) view both narratives and approaches as shortsighted, reactionary and counter-productive in pursuing the collective best interest of Black/New Afrikan people. We contend that its up to us, as Black/New Afrikan people, to demand reparations and Black self-determination and challenge both mainstream political parties within the electoral arena and in the streets. We concede neither space and will compete whenever possible. Black people must not be afraid to run independent, militant, radical and revolutionary candidates for any and all public offices, including the presidency. We must always challenge the legitimacy and moral authority of white-supremacy, neo-colonialism, militarism and economic injustice. As long as their exist political spaces in which we are able to engage in electoral struggle, we should compete. When the time comes when those opportunities and spaces are no longer legal and/or viable, we will make the necessary tactical adjustments.

SISTERS ARE DOING IT FOR THEMSELVES

In today’s political and social climate it’s important for Black/New Afrikan women to be educated, trained and organized in ways and methods of self-defense. Obtaining gun permits and attending classes on gun safety and operations is a major step toward achieving that goal.
WORDS OF WISDOM AND GENERAL INFORMATION:

Black women against gun violence its time for us to step up, to be heard and to be seen: to make a difference nationally on the gun prevention violence scene. The community and nation especially for the children do you understand and really know what I mean: They clearly have PTS (post-traumatic stress): They live in fear and wonder if they will be next: their desire to go to school and learn disappears: They have trouble sleeping because of fear, they are silent victims we all overlook. We forget to ask them everyday how do you feel and listen to what they say: validate their feelings and thoughts, knowing they are real.

My six year old grandson in Atlanta told his mom he did not want to visit me in Minneapolis because someone might kill him like they killed his uncle. He was a good guy on the way to work. Listen to the children, listen to what they say. Love them and protect them in every way. (Rosemary Nevils-Williams)

If you have a school-aged student in need of breakfast and lunch this summer (or know of someone who does), simply text “FOOD” to 877877 and receive a message back with a location closest to where they can get free summer meals. Even if you aren’t in need, someone else’s kids are. No child deserves to go hungry, ever. This is a nationwide program (run by No Kid Hungry) so please share for all of the children who are struggling to get enough food. (Brother Doug)
